

THE STORY OF YOUR NAME AND ITS CONNECTION TO COMMUNITY

THURSDAY FEB. 4

Do Now, Draw Now!

In your Creative Process Journal*, begin your free draw warm up!

*(Be sure to put today's date at the top)

You can draw the card you see here, draw something inspired by the card, OR draw whatever you want!

This is your time to warm up those artistic muscles!

OPENING Q'S IN DESMOS

- Why are names important?
- How do names connect us to others? (Think about history, family, culture, etc).

OBJECTIVE: Artists will design a visual display of their name/nickname that symbolizes who they are and how they connect to a larger community by using their research about their name and the Art Elements in a symbolic way.

AGENDA:

ZONE 1

Do Now Draw Now, Desmos Opening Question

ZONE 2

- The story of a name, how names connect to community and connection to art: Introduction

ZONE 3

Studio Work Time

- Research the history/meaning of your name and create a visual display of your name that symbolizes who you are and how your name is connected to community

ZONE 4

Clean Up & Close: Desmos Closing Question

WHAT THE STORY OF YOUR NAME?

Use the links below to research the meaning/history of your name or last name.

Research your names one at a time.*

Record your any fun or interesting facts you find about your name(s) in your Creative Process Journal.

You can also write anything you already know about your name (family history, why you were given that name, etc.) in your Creative Process Journal.

Hello
my name is

a great story

CONNECTING WORDS AND ART

How can the visual style of a font connect to the mood or message of a word or name?

Beautiful

Reshis

Childlike

Vanilla

futuristic

Kitchen police

Traditional

Voltaire

UGLY

VRAPHY

Flirty

Zrikent624

LOUD

LEMIEZ

SPORTY

SPIN CYCLE 3D

DANGER

SHORTCUT

Simple

WALSH

YOUR TURN!

Now you will create a visual display of your name! (You can use your first, middle, last name or a nickname) - Choose one of your names!

Choose or design a font or lettering style that symbolizes something about you! You can use the links below to get font ideas!

Use Art Elements to symbolize and connect your name to one aspect of community (Family, history, meaning, culture, tradition, etc.)

Think about utilizing the full space. Think about the space both within the letters and around them.

CLOSING Q IN DESMOS

- What is something you learned in your research
- What is one way you are going to use art elements as symbolism in your name?

COVID LAST THREE:

1. Clean tables

2. Mask Check

3. Hand Sanitize

THE STORY OF YOUR NAME AND ITS CONNECTION TO COMMUNITY

DAY 2

FRIDAY FEB. 5

Do Now, Draw Now!

In your Creative Process Journal*, begin your free draw warm up!

*(Be sure to put today's date at the top)

You can draw the card you see here, draw something inspired by the card, OR draw whatever you want!

This is your time to warm up those artistic muscles!

OPENING Q'S IN DESMOS

- How do our names connect to the idea of community? (Think about history, family, culture, meaning)

OBJECTIVE: Artists will design a visual display of their name/nickname that symbolizes who they are and how they connect to a larger community by using their research about their name and the Art Elements in a symbolic way.

AGENDA:

ZONE 1

Do Now Draw Now, Desmos Opening Intro/Prompt

ZONE 2

- Review of yesterday's lesson about names, their connection to community and to art

ZONE 3

Studio Work Time

- Finish creating your visual display of your name that symbolizes who you are and how your name is connected to community and upload it (along with all of your notes and sketches) to your portfolio.

ZONE 4

Clean Up & Close: Desmos Closing Question

WHAT THE STORY OF YOUR NAME?

Use the links below to research the meaning/history of your name and any knowledge you already have about your name (family history, why you were given that name, etc.) in order to determine how your name connects you to a community.

Use Art Elements to symbolize this connection in your name display.

Hello
my name is

a great story

CONNECTING WORDS AND ART

Font style can emphasize a mood or meaning of a word!

Beautiful
Resling
Childlike
Vanilla
futuristic
kitchen police
Traditional
Voltaire
UGLY
VITAMIN

Flirty
ZnikomitiNo21
LOUD
LEMIESE
SPORTY
SPIN CYCLE 3D
DANGER
SHORTCUT
Simple
Hatchback

Use a font or lettering style for your name display that represents something about you! Check out the link below for font ideas!

Finish your visual display of your name! (You can use your first, middle, last name or a nickname)

Choose a font or lettering style that symbolizes something about you!

Use Art Elements to symbolize and connect your name to one aspect of community (Family, history, meaning, culture, tradition, etc.)

Think about utilizing the full space. Think about the space both within the letters and around them.

All done? Go to the next slide for information on uploading to your portfolio!

ALL DONE?

Portfolio Upload

- Upload a photo of your final name display AND
- Upload a photo (or photos) of your original research notes and sketched into your online portfolio!

CLOSING Q IN DESMOS

- How did you use visual elements to represent your name's story and/or a connection to community?

COVID LAST THREE:

1. Clean tables

2. Mask Check

3. Hand Sanitize

